PARTICULARS OF MEMBERSHIP

THE Association of the Friends of Rochester Cathedral was formed in 1935, as it was felt that there were many who would like to be associated with this ancient and interesting church and to have a share in the preservation and upkeep of the fabric.

The Diocese and Cathedral of Rochester go back to the beginning of English Christianity. This is not to be confused with Christianity in what we now speak of as England, for Christianity flourished in Kent soon after the year A.D. 200, and although there is no proof of a Christian Church in Rochester in those early days, there is at least a likelihood that there was one. The Mission sent by Pope Gregory the Great, and welcomed and aided by King Ethelbert, secured the founding of the See of Canterbury about A.D. 597, and those of Rochester and London in A.D. 604. Close to the West Door of the Cathedral the foundations of the apse of the old Saxon Church were discovered-semicircular lines just inside the Cathedral mark the site-and the foundations of its Nave walls were traced running westwards across the cemetery outside. No foundations of a western apse have been discovered. The Cathedral Church as it stands to-day is an interesting epitome of English architecture from early Norman to the present century—the latter represented by restoration work.

All who care for this venerable church are asked to join the Association, to help the Dean and Chapter bear the responsibility of preserving for future generations a building which stands for so much in the history of our National Church.

Since the inauguration over 2,600 Friends have enrolled themselves, and their contributions have resulted in much valuable work in several ways. Important and necessary repairs to the fabric have been carried out, especially to parapets, roofs, and copings, During the war, funds were supplied by the Friends for defence work against bomb damage, blast, and fire, But it is especially due to their efforts that there has been revealed the interest and beauty of the Monastic Cloisters, its buildings, and its garth. The Chapter House doorway has been opened and the exquisite Romanesque carving of its masonry shown. Within the Chapter House, Priors' burial places have been discovered; the foundations of the pillars which carried a gallery across the west end from the dormitory to the Cathedral have been exposed; the refectory doorway and its adjacent washing-trough have been made objects of interest; and the fine vaulted archway entered from the main road of the Precinct has been opened out. Of the Cellarer's buildings some walls have been shown, and the Tudor buttresses clearly tell what King Henry the Eighth planned for the housing of his retinue. Funds are urgently needed for all this work. Will you become a Friend and help?

The minimum subscription has been fixed at £1 per annum, which it is hoped will enable all who wish to do so to enrol themselves, but it is also hoped that many will be able to give larger sums. There is also a Corporate Membership for Schools, Colleges, Parochial Church Councils, etc., with a minimum subscription of £1 per annum, whilst Individual Life Membership is £10, or Joint Life Membership, for husband and wife, £15 15s. Boys and girls under 18 years of age, 2s. per annum. Each Friend receives a Card of Membership and a copy of the Annual Report is sent to each Member other than Junior Members, when published.

Friends who visit the Cathedral and attend Festivals are asked to wear the Badge of Membership, illustrated on the cover. It consists of a gold scallop on a red field with the words "Friends of Rochester Cathedral" round the rim and the date of the inception. Badges are 2s. od. (1s. 6d. for Junior Members) and may be obtained from the Honorary Secretary.

THE FLOWER GUILD

THE Flower Guild has forty-nine members and their beautiful arrangements in the Cathedral have been much appreciated and admired by many people during the year.

We have had a most generous gift of wrought iron pedestals from the Royal Engineers, and also a handsome pedestal given by Mrs. Porter. We are extremely grateful for these pedestals, which make the arrangements much more attractive and suitable for a Cathedral.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Those wishing to arrange flowers at The Book, in memory of relatives, should get in touch with the Secretary of the Guild, who keeps a special diary for this purpose.

We have had a successful experiment with dried flowers between Christmas and Lent. The muted colours have been much admired and appreciated. Gifts of dried flowers would be welcomed to build a stock for another year.

Our thanks go to Mrs. Palmer for her work as Secretary, and to the Vergers and Mrs. Rudd for all their help.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Ir you have approached the Cathedral from the High Street, through the Pilgrim's Passage, you will have already seen the glory of the North Transept front now that it has been cleaned. This was the major work undertaken by the Friends during this year, and which has been so successfully carried out. The work cost about £2,000 and this generous contribution is greatly appreciated by all. The Dean and Chapter have continued the cleaning of the West face of the North Transept, and the overall result is very pleasing.

Much thought has been given to the refurnishing of the Nave. It is generally agreed that what is required is a stone platform, extending from the present steps at the entry to the Quire, on which the altar will normally stand; the platform to be big enough for Speech Days and other functions which take place in the Nave. The Cathedral Architect designed a "mock-up" of this platform in wood which was erected in time for the Christmas Services. Having actually used it, we believe it is just what is required, and with the encouragement of the Cathedral's Advisory Committee, we hope to proceed to the erection of the stone platform in the near future. The Friends have agreed to pay £1,750 towards this, which sum includes the very generous legacy of the Featherstone family.

The Friends will be interested to know that the Dean and Chapter are renovating the St. John's Chapel; and also providing 200 new chairs for the Nave. An unexpected expense which they have had to carry in the past year has been the repairs to the South Transent windows which cost (800)

South Transept windows, which cost £800.

The continuing of the cleaning and repairing of the outside of the Cathedral must go steadily on. The next stage of this is the North wall of the Presbytery, which is open to the High Street, behind the War Memorial. It is hoped this year to do up to £2,500 worth of work on this; and of this, the Friends'

Council have generously decided to pay half. We are still well supported by a number of firms and for this we are deeply grateful. It is clear, however, that the future lies with an increase in the number of Friends, and the greater number of smaller contributions.

There have been changes in the Membership of the Council. We regret that Lord De L'Isle has found it necessary to resign as Vice-Chairman, but we are delighted that Mr. D. J. Bradley has been willing to accept nomination to this office. We are sorry that the Senior Member of the Council, Dr. C. W. Greene, has had to resign on grounds of health, but we welcome warmly in his place his daughter, Mrs. P. M. Sharp. We regret to have to record the death of Lady Bennett.

We would like to express once again our gratitude to the Office Staff: Miss Hitchen, Miss Black, Miss Harvey and Mr. F. H. Sears. Some people may not realise quite how much they do for us, but I know it at first hand and want them to know how much we appreciate this. The master mind behind it all is that of the Rev. P. M. Sharp. In this last year I have had further opportunities of discovering how much we owe to him, and I would like to express to him on behalf of the Friends our very great gratitude.

From my point-of-view, The Festival last year, including the Annual Meeting, was a very happy occasion. We much look forward to the visit of H.R.H. Princess Marina, Duchess of Kent, our Patron, for the Festival this June. Council Meetings have been times of hard work for all Members, and it is a privilege to be the leader of such a team. We hope that Members of the Friends will feel that the responsibility committed by them to the Council is being discharged to their satisfaction. The support of the prayers of the Friends is much appreciated, as we seek week-by-week to make this glorious building a living House of God, and an even better instrument for the accomplishing of His Purpose.

REPORT OF THE HON. SECRETARY AND TREASURER

GENERAL

The great event, to which we all keenly look forward, is the visit to the Festival, on Thursday, June 6th, 1968, of our Patron H.R.H. Princess Marina, Duchess of Kent.

After fulfilling other engagements in Rochester on that day, the Princess will attend Festival Evensong in the Cathedral at 3.15 p.m., followed by tea in the Garth, at which she has graciously consented also to be present.

We are very fortunate, too, in the fact that the String Section of the Royal Engineers' Band, by kind permission of Brigadier W. M. Inglis, will play light music during tea. The price of the tea tickets, which this year will have to be strictly limited, is to be 5s., and the entrance to the Garth will be from the South Door of the Cathedral only. If wet, tea will be served in the King's School New Hall, by kind permission of the Headmaster, Canon D. R. Vicary.

FINANCE

In his report the Dean has referred to the large sums of money the Friends have been able to devote for three main undertakings, namely, the cleaning of the North Front; the provision of a new Nave Altar and platform; and the future cleaning of the North Wall of the Presbytery.

All this we can comfortably manage, although afterwards we shall have again to try and build up!

MEMBERSHIP

Deaths and removals, as well as a thorough combing of long outstanding subscriptions, have caused a slight reduction in membership to 1,256 at the time of going to print. It's getting increasingly hard to get new members, though we persevere.

This meets normally twice a year in the early Spring and early Autumn. The Members of it take a keen interest, and, generally, these meetings are very well attended.

There is one vacancy to be filled by the death of Lady Bennett—a member of many years' standing—and nominations should be sent to me, in writing, well in advance of the Annual General Meeting. Members normally serve for three years but are eligible for re-election.

AUDIT

Yet again, Mr. Hoby and Mr. Bailey have acted as Honorary Auditors. This usually means, for them, working over a weekend and out of hours to get it through in time for the printers. We are very grateful.

STAFF

The Dean has most kindly referred to us in his report. None of us is getting younger; but we do our very best. The work is naturally of great interest to each one of us, but, also, a not inconsiderable tie. For instance, about 1,000 envelopes have to be addressed for the despatch of the Annual Report. If members move we are grateful for a notification of the new address.

LADIES' SEWING GUILD

The Ladies' Sewing Guild continues as ever in its quiet way to keep the kneelers, cassocks and surplices of the Cathedral in good repair. In addition to this some of its members have been busily occupied in embroidering covers designed by Mrs. Harland for the cushions used by the Dean, Archdeacon and Canons, and which are now nearing completion. Examples of the former work of the Guild are to be seen in the various chapels, a twenty-seven foot long carpet worked in various shades of blue in St. Michael's Chapel, together with kneelers in gold, in the Lady Chapel kneelers in various designs, and in the Jesus Chapel kneelers embroidered with coats of arms borne by previous Bishops of Rochester.

The Guild much regrets the resignation of Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Rayner, the latter a founder member.

I should like to take this opportunity on behalf of the Guild to thank Mrs. Harland for her great kindness and warm hospitality extended to its members at the meetings.

No existing institution, if it has its roots in the past, can be properly understood if it is regarded entirely in contemporary terms, without some account being taken of its function in, and its heritage from, the past. In origin, and by definition, a Cathedral is the bishop's church, for it is there, from the earliest times, that the bishop had his cathedra. Originally, the church was served by the bishop himself and his household, or familia. As the bishop's responsibilities grew and his jurisdiction extended and as the worship of the Cathedral Church became more elaborate, the responsibility for the administration of the Cathedral was gradually delegated to a separate body of clergy who, in the course of time, became a separate ecclesiastical corporation, or chapter. Nevertheless, the Cathedral has never lost its episcopal connection, for his cathedra is still there, he is the Visitor of the Cathedral, and the latter has always been the Mother Church of the diocese.

From the earliest times the Cathedral has also had a special relationship with the neighbourhood in its immediate vicinity. In those days it was to this immediate neighbourhood that bishop and clergy went out from the Cathedral to Christianise the people. Then there was the rise of monastic cathedrals, with their surrounding estates and with their spiritual, educational and relief work that was a potent influence in the locality.

As has already been said, the bishop's familia developed into a separate corporation. This was a Dean and Chapter of secular priests or a Prior and Chapter of religious, together with a large number of other persons who were "on the foundation" or were employed by the capitular body. It was this community of persons who offered the daily round of worship.

It may be useful to look at the work of Rochester

Cathedral under those same three historical headings. First, it is the Mother Church of the diocese. In this capacity it is the place where services particularly associated with the bishop are held. Chief among these is the Ordination Service and other great diocesan services. Here at the Cathedral we are happy to welcome parish parties or groups who wish to see and hear about their Mother Church, who wish to offer their own worship here, or who would like to join in the Cathedral's worship. Here, each day, at the Cathedral Services one of the parishes in the diocese is prayed for according to the Calendar of Intercession. Here, once a year, we have the three Cathedral Lectures to which parishes all over the diocese come. More recently, we have had a Clergy Conference for Incumbents in the diocese. From the Cathedral members of the Chapter go out to parishes to preach and to speak. Once or twice a year the Cathedral Choir visits a parish church to sing Evensong, and the Cathedral Organist, in his capacity as Adviser to the Diocesan Music Committee, is available to help parishes musically. In other words, the Cathedral is a focal point for the unity of the diocese.

Secondly, the Cathedral is related to its immediate neighbourhood. It has a special relationship with the Medway Towns. Here are held Services associated with the various organisations based on the Medway Towns—Men of Kent, Hospitals, Royal Engineers Memorial Service, British Legion and Civic Services, etc. Schools in the Medway Towns come here for their Carol Services or their Confirmations. It is here that the local Choral Society has its performances. The Cathedral is represented on the Rochester Ruri-Decanal Chapter, the Ministers' Fraternal and the Local Council of Churches. Members of the regular congregations come from this neighbourhood. We have recently started a series of mid-week lunch-hour programmes of services, music, talks, discussions, etc.

Diocesan and neighbourhood activities, however, are in a sense isolated events, but the Cathedral functions every day of the year and this brings us to the third traditional function of a cathedral. Rochester Cathedral today is a community of persons—Dean and Chapter, priest-vicars, choristers and lay clerks, King's School and Theological College, the Cathedral servants and the residents in the Precinct—a community of persons in Christ. All these people are engaged in different jobs, some quite outside the Cathedral building itself, each with his own particular gifts and interests. In so far as they use their talents according to vocation and with regard to the will of God, they are in a very real sense making their contribution to the work of the Cathedral and as "the Body of Christ" in this place they meet together to offer their personal gifts and talents in the corporate worship of the Body. Basically, Morning and Evening prayer, sung or said daily, are the morning and evening prayers of the Cathedral community, and the Holy Communion is the offering of its life and work. These are "community services" not produced primarily for the benefit of others. The worship rightly reaches its climax in the Sunday Sung Communion. Here one agrees with the Precentor of Coventry Cathedral when he wrote recently that "whatever be the mode of worship on a Sunday in a parish church, it is quite certain that in every cathedral church the principal service must be the Communion". In passing, it is part of the task of a Cathedral so to order its worship and its ceremonial that it should be a model and an inspiration to the whole diocese.

Thus the daily worship of the Cathedral is an integral part of the life of the Cathedral Community. And this is not without relevance even in 1968, in this age when the emphasis in religion is placed on personal human relationships and involvement in the world. Cathedrals, with their emphasis on worship, are a constant reminder of the God-man relationship, of the transcendental aspect of Christianity.
